

WINTER SEASON BEGINS WITH OPERA AND THE HORSE SHOW

Fixed Events Brilliantly Start New York's Gayety

From Now On Society's Headquarters Will Be in City Homes, While Country Places Are Kept Open for the End of the Week.

With the opening of both the opera and horse show tomorrow, New York has come into its own again, or to be more explicit, everybody has returned to town and the week will be crowded with gayety. Some of those who have country-houses in the suburbs may, after the first days of the season, go back to their nearby estates, but from now on society's headquarters will be in town, and those who desert it will not do so for long, but will vibrate between city and country.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Fairfax Cary have returned to the city and taken Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Livingston Hoyt's house, at 28 East Thirty-sixth street, for the winter. Mrs. Cary was Mrs. Arthur Scott Burden, daughter of Mr. Burke Roche. She was married to Mr. Cary in the late summer at Newport.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Gould have returned from Ardley to 936 Fifth avenue.

Mrs. William Dison, recently back from Europe, will spend the winter at the Ritz-Carlton.

The Board of Trustees of the Museum of the American Indian, Heye Foundation, have issued invitations to a reception and private view of the notable collection of Indian objects there Wednesday afternoon. The collection will be opened to the public on Thursday.

Mrs. Vladimir Bondy and Miss Milena Vilimok, arriving on the Aquitania, will spend the winter with Mr. and Mrs. William H. Hirst at 375 Park avenue.

Mrs. Talbot Olyphant will sail December 9 for Italy, where she will spend the winter. She has leased her apartment at 211 Park avenue to Mrs. Francis O. French and is now with her daughter, Mrs. John de Peyster Douv, in Annapolis, Md.

Armistice Day was celebrated last evening by a number of dinner parties at the Hotel Belvedere. Among those entertaining there were the Marquis de San Miguel, Mr. J. Gilmore Fletcher and Mr. James J. Maguire.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford N. Carver, from Locust Valley, are at 1155 Park avenue.

Dr. and Mrs. James Henry Lanca-shire, who accompanied their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. V. Umberto Coletti to Florence, Italy, are now in London. They plan to sail for New York on the Aquitania November 25, and will be at 7 East Seventy-fifth street.

Mrs. Carlisle J. Gleason of 777 Madison avenue, will give a luncheon on December 5 at the Hotel Ambassador for her debutante daughter, Miss Louise P. Gleason.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Mortimer Lichtenauer will spend the winter in Florence, where he has a studio and where he will do some experimental work with fifteenth century fresco painting methods.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick M. Hilton have returned from Scarborough to 375 Park avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Edison Bradley have closed their house in Tuxedo and are at their apartment 938 Fifth avenue. Later they will go to their Washington home.

Mr. and Mrs. Lulu J. Francke recently back from Europe, have taken an apartment at 951 Park avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Huntington Erhart will go abroad on their wedding trip. Mrs. Erhart was Miss Katherine Kent and was married on Monday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Edward Kent, in Jericho, L. I. Mr. Erhart is the son of Mr. William H. Erhart.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Egerton Webb have returned from the Piping Rock Club, at Locust Valley, to the New Weston Hotel.

Mrs. James B. Haggis has returned from Lexington, Ky., to 1 East Sixty-fourth street.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward M. Weld will occupy the Williams Burden house at 55 East Forty-ninth street.

Mrs. John E. Alexander when she closes her villa in Lenox will go to 960 Park avenue for the winter.

Mrs. John B. Morgan has returned from Ridgefield, Conn., to 49 East Thirty-eighth street.

Mrs. Henry McHatten has taken an apartment at 14 East Sixtieth street.

Dinner Parties to Precede Y. W. C. A. Drive

Mrs. Henry P. Davison of the Y. W. C. A. Board of Directors. Mrs. Francis McNeil Bacon, one of the patronesses. Mrs. William Fellowes Morgan, President, Y. W. C. A. of New York.

Patronesses Will Take Guests to See Association's Work.

SEVERAL dinner parties will precede the Y. W. C. A. meeting at the Town Hall next Thursday evening incident to the drive for $500,000. Mrs. William Fellowes Morgan, president of the Young Women's Christian Association of the city of New York, and other members of the board of directors as well as the patronesses will entertain, later taking their guests to see what is being done in the twenty-six branches, centers, residences and summer camps operated by the New York Y. W. C. A.

Mrs. Frederick Cone is chairman of the program committee. Mrs. William Sloan Coffin, chairman of the committee on arrangements; Mrs. Paul Sturtevant is arranging the Girl Reserve ceremony, and Mrs. Erastus M. Cravath the tableau to be put on by the International Institute of the Y. W. C. A. Mrs. Cone has announced that the music will be furnished by resident members of the Studio Club, which is operated by the Y. W. C. A. for young women art students.

The list of patronesses includes: Mrs. Francis McNeil Bacon, Mrs. Robert Bacon, Mrs. Stephen Baker, Miss Elizabeth Billings, Mrs. Edwin M. Buckley, Mrs. Jonathan Bulley, Mrs. Andrew Carnegie, Mrs. Pierre C. Cartier, Mrs. William Sloan Coffin, Mrs. John Lee Connable, Mrs. Charles R. Crane, Miss Eleanor deGraff Cuyler, Mrs. John Davis,

Religious Pageant in Greenwich for Aid of Hospital

'Jephthah's Daughter' Will Be Given to Found Children's Ward.

Special Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD. GREENWICH, Conn., Nov. 11.—Society here is interested in a big religious pageant to be produced in the Second Congregational Church on December 1 at 8 P. M., and December 2 at 4 P. M., the proceeds of which will go to the endowment of a children's ward in the Greenwich Hospital. The spectacle is entitled "Jephthah's Daughter," the text of which has been written by the Rev. Dr. Oliver Hucks, pastor of the church. It is founded on the Old Testament story of Jephthah. It will be directed by Mrs. H. H. Brown of New York; the scenery and costumes are being designed by Ernest de Wurth of New York and the principal roles will be taken by residents of Greenwich, including Mr. W. E. Major as Jephthah, Miss Evelyn Wright of Riverside as Jephthah's daughter, Graham H. Brush, daughter of Alfred Gilder Smith, as First Communion, and others. Mrs. Frederic C. Studwell will have charge of the music and Mrs. Edward W. Packard will be business manager. About seventy persons will take part. The pageant was first suggested by the Greenwich Council of Relief and Education, but has widened its scope to include the entire community. It promises to be one of the most unique performances ever seen in Greenwich.

Legion Ball a Success.

The ball at the State Armory, under the auspices of Greenwich Post, American Legion, last night was well attended. One of the features was the initial appearance here of Bernhard Levittov's Hotel Commodore Orchestra, New York, which gave a concert program from 8 to 9 P. M.

The Riverside Players will present three plays, "Hearts," "Three Pills in a Bottle," and "The Bottle," on Friday and Saturday evenings, November 24 and 25, in the ballroom of the Sound Beach Golf and Country Club. The Field Club held a supper dance at the club house to-night, which was largely attended by the members and their friends. Last Saturday evening Charles Ingram, who with a party of friends attended the Yale-Brown football game at the Yale Bowl, New Haven, entertained them for dinner at the club upon their return to Greenwich. His guests were Mrs. David S. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Truesdale, Mr. and Mrs. George B. Carhart, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Pennington, Mr. and Mrs. H. Ashton Crosby, Col. and Mrs. Charles A. Moore, Jr., Major Robertson, Mrs. Marshall C. Bacon and Mr. and Mrs. John Heffron. In the finals of the mixed doubles for the club championship played at the Field Club last Sunday afternoon, Miss Mary Heaton and Hoffman Nickerson beat Miss Helen Hooker and her father, Henry Hooker, by scores of 6-2, 5-4, 7-5. The match was closely contested and was well played by both teams. Miss Helen Hooker is the champion in women's singles for the club this year. Baseball is proving to be a popular outdoor sport among the male members of the club week ends.

Organ Dedicated.

The inauguration and dedication of the new organ at the Second Congregational Church here, as well as the fifth anniversary of its pastor, Rev. Dr. Oliver Hucks, was celebrated last Sunday afternoon by the rendition of Mendelssohn's "Hymn of Praise," given under the direction of Mrs. Frederic C. Studwell, a prize pupil at the Yale Music School several years ago, who presided at the organ. It was sung by a chorus of thirty-five voices.

St. Paul's Players of Greenwich will present "The Little Toller" for the benefit of the Bankville chapel on Monday and Tuesday evenings, November 13 and 14.

Glee Club Contest Will Be Held Here in March

The seventh annual Intercollegiate Glee Club contest will be held in Carnegie Hall March 2, 1923. Glee Clubs from Amherst, Columbia, Cornell, Dartmouth, Harvard, New York University, Penn State, Princeton, University of Pennsylvania, Wesleyan and Yale have already entered.

During the summer Albert F. Pickernell, president of the Intercollegiate Musical Corporation of New York city, organized a glee club contest among the larger colleges in the middle West which include University of Chicago, University of Illinois, Northwestern, Milliken, DePaul, Iowa, Purdue, University of Michigan and others. This group will hold a contest in Chicago early in February, and it is planned to bring the winner of this group to New York to appear at the March 2 contest of Eastern colleges.

Mr. Pickernell has also organized a contest on the Pacific coast to be held in San Francisco some time during the coming concert season.

BENEFIT RUMMAGE SALE.

Mrs. Martha Leavitt Robb has organized a rummage sale for the benefit of the Church Mission of Help, to be held in the parish house of the Church of the Heavenly Rest, 2 East Forty-third street, for three days, beginning November 21. There will be on sale useful articles, furniture and clothing, bric-a-brac, books and other articles which will be gratefully received at the parish house any time before November 19. Mrs. Herbert Shipman, Mrs. William H. La Boyteaux and Miss Isabelle A. Watts will assist.

Tryouts for Parts in Religious Spectacle

The annual tryouts for parts in the cast of "Veronica's Veil," America's Passion Play, which is annually produced at St. Joseph's Auditorium, West Hoboken, will start this week. This religious dramatic spectacle requires more than 300 players of both sexes and each year before the season begins an opportunity is offered young men and women who possess dramatic talent to see if they can qualify as members of the cast.

Any young man or woman who thinks that he or she is capable of taking part in this drama depicting the betrayal, sufferings, crucifixion and death of Christ and is not afraid of the arduous work of rehearsals, is invited to communicate with the Rev. Father Bernard, C. P., 263 Central avenue, West Hoboken. The first performance of the 1923 season will open on Sunday evening, February 11, and will continue on every Tuesday, Thursday, Sunday evening and Sunday afternoon during the Lenten season.

L. I. SOCIETY MEETING.

The Long Island Society, D. R., met at the Pough Maudslayi Wednesday afternoon. The hostesses were Mrs. Carl G. Schmidt, Mrs. Roland M. Smythe, Mrs. Dudley S. O'Neal, Miss Catherine A. Remen, Mrs. Sarah W. Taylor, Mrs. Howard A. Sperry, Mrs. Sylvester Swain, Mrs. William H. Haas and Mrs. Sterling St. John.

The Friendly Committee gave a card party at the Hotel Bossart Friday afternoon for the benefit of Brooklyn's First Free Kindergarten.

RICHMOND FLOWER SHOW.

Among those who are exhibiting flowers at the Chrysanthemum Show, which opened yesterday and continues to-day at the Staten Island Museum of Art and Sciences, are Mrs. Edna E. Snow, Mrs. C. W. Leng, Miss Diana Dinwiddie, Mrs. Frank L. Doty, Mr. Fred S. Heil, Mr. Albert Selim and Mr. Charles M. Pett. Mr. John Rader of the Horticultural Society is in charge.
